Sacramento has started using AI-powered cameras on buses to catch cars parked illegally at bus stops. Up to 100 buses will have this technology to improve safety and accessibility for all riders. The cameras will record violations and send the information to the city for review and ticketing.

Source: https://aibusiness.com/computer-vision/ai-powered-cameras-deployed-to-catch-parking-violations-at-bus-stops